

Organizational Membership

Asset managers, asset owners, companies, and service providers (such as consulting firms and law firms) have joined the SASB Alliance to be part of the global effort to identify the sustainability issues that impact financial performance. SASB provides Alliance Organizational members with ongoing educational opportunities and exclusive member-only discussions. By joining the SASB Alliance, organizations show their support for standardized sustainability information that meet investors' needs while reducing the burden on companies.

COMING TOGETHER TO MOVE THE MARKETS

Not since the development of financial accounting standards have the capital markets seen such an opportunity to help companies and investors improve their performance. With a focus on industry-specific, cost-effective, and decision-useful sustainability accounting standards, SASB helps everyone focus on what's truly material. SASB is an ambitious organization that is quickly gaining momentum—in just a few years, SASB has developed standards for over 70 industries, engaged thousands of participants in its standards setting process, and garnered more than 10,000 media mentions. Join a growing movement of organizations that are finding out how SASB's work can help them.

PRICING

The annual member fee is based on the type or organization (asset owner/manager, service provider, company) and its relative size (AUM, number of employees, or revenue). Please email jeff.cohen@foundation.sasb.org for more information.
